MISS METCALFE'S AUTHOR RECOMMENDED READS!

Hello all and welcome back to the final school term. I wanted to share with you an author that I came across last year when teaching about polar environments. We read the first book in class and waited with anticipation for the new releases in the series! It is a gorgeous chapter book, perfect for KS2 children, and touches on the importance of looking after our world. Just take a look at the gorgeous illustrations. There are currently four books in the series – I can't wait to read Turtle Moon!

INSPIRING PICTURE BOOKS

This gorgeous book follows an adventurous little snail who follows their own path. They face unexpected challenges and sometimes need to ask for help along the way – but the message is to never give up! This book was shortlisted for the Waterstones Children's Book Prize 2025
