

12th February 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to you as we have reached the end of a very challenging half-term for everyone involved with both schools. I fully appreciate the stresses of combining home schooling, work and home life. On behalf of everyone I would like to thank you for your effort and say how much I appreciate it.

As families, you have supported your children fantastically and the staff and I are thrilled at seeing the variety of work which they are undertaking on a daily basis.

I would like to extend my thanks to the staff, governors and church for their unwavering support and commitment to ensuring that every pupil experiences a high quality education, even in these difficult circumstances. Their efforts have been incredible and I would personally like to thank them.

Our vision, 'Learning and growing in the love of God' is certainly being lived out every day by everyone connected with our school. I am proud that our pupils recognise our six Christian values and try their best to put them into practice.

Friendship
Honesty
Responsibility
Respect
Perseverance
Forgiveness

I wish you all a peaceful half-term and hope that you and your children are able to find some rest and relaxation over the week. At present, we are awaiting further updates from the DfE about wider re-opening. We will of course keep you updated as soon as we are able. This means we will continue to be open for the children of key workers on Monday 22nd February. For those children who are still learning at home, we look forward to seeing you again on ZOOM, or sharing your learning and news via Seesaw/ Tapestry.

Yours faithfully,

Peter Richardson
 Executive Headteacher
